

MAY MENTAL HEALTH MONTH

Patrick J. Kennedy

Former U.S. Representative/
Mental Health Advocate

“Fifty years ago, my uncle, President John F. Kennedy, put the spotlight on mental health by challenging Congress to provide total health care for all Americans. Remember, mental illness is an issue of chemistry, not of character. This May become an advocate for change.”